

June 24, 2009

Mr. Kevin Robinson
Chief Engineer
1301 Southgate Road
Arlington, Virginia 22202

Dear Mr. Robinson:

Congratulations on completing the development of the Missile Defense Agency (MDA) Integrated Master Test Plan (IMTP). Your superb leadership of the Phase I Requirements Design Team enabled the development of critical flight and ground test events that will significantly contribute to the validation, verification, and accreditation of the Ballistic Missile Defense System (BMDS) Models and Simulations. Your individual efforts in this endeavor will result in improved system performance and increased confidence by the Operational Test community, the Warfighter, and the Nation. Your contributions to the BMDS IMTP will have a profound impact on our ability to test and deploy an effective missile defense system for the Nation. You can be rightfully proud of your accomplishments, dedication, and commitment to the Department of Defense.

Again, thank you for your significant contributions to the Ballistic Missile Defense mission and best wishes as you continue your service to MDA.

*Thank you
for your contribution to our Nation!*

Sincerely,

PATRICK J. O'REILLY
Lieutenant General, U.S. Army
Director